Looking Back Through The Years

25 YEARS Ago

January 3, 1986

The Shonert family dynasty of 78 years is broken. The Falmouth Outlook, weekly newspaper serving the Falmouth and Pendleton County communities since 1907, has been sold to an Ohio-based newspaper group. The newspaper, which has been operated by the W.J. Shonert family since its inception June 21, 1907, will become property of The Delphos Herald, Inc., of Delphos, Ohio, effective January 2, 1986. A note of appreciation was given to Mr. Shonert from his staff saying "There will never be another Warren! We will miss you!"

Richard Fry is named publisher and editor of The Falmouth Outlook. He is a top notch journalist and a graduate of the University of Dayton School of Communication Arts. This is the beginning of a new day for The Falmouth Outlook.

Kincaid State Park Boat Dock was robbed by thieves on Christmas Eve. Someone that enjoys fishing had a great Christmas. They broke a window and entered the building then filled bags with all kinds of fishing tackle, rod and reels, etc., valued at $600. Also taken was a 7 1/2 hp boat motor valued at $500. Delbert Reid, Park Superintendent, says that the incident is under investigation with the Kentucky State Police.

Dravo Lime Company has reached agreement in principle to buy an integrated lime operation owned by subsidiaries of Armco Inc., and LTV Steel Corporation. The operation, Black River Lime Company, is located at Carntown, about 30 miles east of Cincinnati. The 3,800-acre site contains more than 150 million tons of recoverable limestone.

The mobile home belonging to Juanita Daniels burned to the ground December 18 and was a total loss.

50 YEARS Ago

January 6, 1961

The Pendleton Wildcats walked off with their second straight first place trophy in the Invitational Tournament. The first night, Harrison defeated Falmouth 53-52 in a squeaker and Pendleton in the second game beat Grant County 56-47. A full house was on hand to see Grant County wallop Falmouth 81-61 in the consolation game. The final game was Coach Dwight Wolfe's Wildcats defeating Coach Jack Sutherland's Harrison County Thorobreds 64-56. The game was Pendleton's best effort of the season and was sweet revenge for Pendleton as they were beaten just two weeks ago, 58-57, on Harrison's home court. The game was marked by a scoring duel between Pendleton County's Dick King and Harrison County's Keller Works, with King coming out ahead with 28 and Works with 23. This was only the second defeat in thirteen years for Harrison County.

Mrs. Winston Sorrell and Mrs. Fred Taylor, her son Richard and two daughters, Mrs. Dallas Rachford and Mrs. Glen Hammond will attend the Ruth Lions 50-50 Club on January 6.

Charles Mays, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mays of Mt. Auburn, received a $500 award from Holdon Robinson, a representative of Haskins and Sells, certified public accounting firm in Cincinnati. The award is given to 75 students in colleges across the nation who are selected as the outstanding seniors in accounting. Charles is a senior in the University of Kentucky College of Commerce and will graduate in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson and children Paul Jr. and Linda spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wilson, who are spending the winter in St. Petersburg, Florida. Weather there is much warmer than here.

75 YEARS Ago

January 10, 1936

The total bonded indebtedness of the City of Falmouth at the close of business December 31, 1935, stood at $14,000.

The Supreme Court of the United States handed down the most important and far-reaching decision in its history, when it declared the Agricultural Adjustment Administration unconstitutional.

Falmouth City Council met for the first time of the year at City Hall with Mayor Wilson in the chair. Councilmen J.M. Parker, Clark Yelton, Raymond Montgomery, Colvin Wright, and Joshua Waldron and City Clerk Harry Hopkins were present. They preceeded to elect its clerk/treasurer for the ensuing two years, and Mr. Hopkins was unanimously elected without any opposition. Harry Gulick, who has served two years as policeman, was elected marshal; Harry W. Bishop was elected policeman; Lee Antrobus was unanimously elected waterworks utility man, a capacity in which he has long served. Allie F. Arnold was re-elected to the office of electrician. Martin Coleman and Jack Dunn were re-elected to the position of city civil engineer.

Alva Johnson's stripping room near Willow was destroyed by fire on December 28, including a quantity of tobacco.

R. Risk Arnold, well-known merchant of this city, is in Chicago attending the house furnishing market.

Roy T. Ackman, well-known rural route mail carrier of DeMossville, was a business visitor in Falmouth.

J.D. Carmac, who conducts a filling station and general store at Bethel, this county, has our thanks for renewing his subscription.

Farmers are satisfied with the price of tobacco they received.

Ben Rice sold 23 nice geese to Bert Littleton for 65 cents each.

W.H. Pribble of Mt. Auburn has purchased a new milk wagon.

Frank Works has purchased the old Price farm at Gardnersville and expects to move to it in the spring.

L.F. Barnes, the general merchant of Neave, has shipped 12,860 rabbits this season and is still at the game, paying a dime for every "fuzzy" you bring him. Mr. Barnes is only one of about thirty who shipped large numbers of rabbits out of the county. To state that 300,000 molliers were sent out would not be an underestimated amount. We live in rabbit country.

The Falmouth and McKinneysburg Telephone Company has decided to extend its line into Bracken County as far as the home of A.T. Wiggins.

R.W. Lemmon this week received a car load of the most up-to-date buggies on the market. They consist of twin auto seats with beautiful brass trimmings in both rubber and steel tires.

Miss Lucille Browning delightfully entertained a number of her young friends at her handsome home on Riverside Avenue. Those present were Misses Faye Rogers, Mary Kennett Sutton, Ruth Ridgway, Julia Reubelt, Mable Kerr, Ella and Alice Galloway, Nan Rule, Kate and Mayme Bradford, Carl Creclius, Donald Dunstall, Frank Chipman, Harry Dougherty, and Rollie Mains.

John Bredell of New York has sold his farm of 50 acres near Butler to Miss Belle Thomas.

John Miller and wife of Wampum are entertaining a new daughter, born on December 9.

Walter Cundiff and Gertrude Frazier exchanged vows.

Site offers help to parents facing teen drug use

Kentucky's Office of Drug Control Policy announced the launch of Time To Get Help www.drugfree.org/timetogethelp, a first-of-its-kind website and online community to provide parents of teens and young adults with lifesaving information when families are in crisis and facing their child's addiction. The site, developed by The Partnership at Drugfree.org, of which Kentucky is a member, offers comprehensive insight into adolescent alcohol and drug abuse, dependence, and addiction; support from top experts and other parents who have been there; and treatment options for the child and family.

"Thousands of Kentucky's teens and young adults struggle with drugs and alcohol, and this site provides parents with a concise path to resources and support when they suspect or know their teens are using alcohol or other drugs," said Van Ingram, executive director of ODCP. The online resource offers two practical e-books, both free of charge, which educate parents on what they need to know about youth intervention and treatment. Parents can also share their stories, ask difficult questions, and get peer-to-peer and expert advice on intervention, treatment, and recovery.

Recipe

continued from Page 1 based on the feedback of our members," says Janet Tharpe, host of the club. "It's because of people like Jennifer Cochran, who is proud to share her family's favorite recipes with other hometown cooks, that the club has become so popular and is growing so fast."

Cochran's Nanny's Sweet Chili recipe, along with thousands of others, can be viewed, printed and shared at no charge through the online club.

"My grandmother has made me this every year for Halloween and Christmas, and just about anytime I have asked for it. She finally got tired of making it for me so she just gave me the recipe," says Cochran.

Founded in 2010, Just A Pinch Recipe Club offers free memberships and premium perks. For more information, visit www.justapinch.com or www.facebook.com/justapinch.

Fines

Emergency and public safety vehicles are exempt when the use of a personal communication device is essential to the operator's official duties.

"We believe the law will encourage drivers to stay focused on the task at hand," said Transportation Secretary Mike Hancock. "And with tighter provisions for those under 18, our new drivers will automatically be educated on this important safe driving practice."

According to the National Highway Traffic Safety

Helping Greg with the vehicle was his father, Don Johnson, also of Butler; Jason Logan of Falmouth painted the S-10 Hawaiian Orchard Metallic; and Brandon Bowling helped with the airbrushing.

So if you are planning on going to the Cavalcade of Customs, be sure to look for this sharp S-10 that lives in Pendleton County.

Opinion

Carl Frazer, Rotary President in 1962-63 and 1974-75

By
The Rabbi

Known as “Pinky” Frazer, a nickname given to him as a child due to the color of his hair, he was a prominent and much beloved citizen of Falmouth. Probably best known as a Buick dealer located at Second and Main Street in Falmouth, he was much more as is reflected in an article about his life in the April 25, 1975 issue of the Falmouth Outlook:

“Mr. Frazer was one of Falmouth’s best known and highly regarded citizens and businessmen. The large crowd that assembled at the funeral home on Thursday evening was a tribute to his wide acquaintanceship. He came from an old Falmouth family and believed in service to his community and was a member of the Falmouth Rotary Club for many years, being President at the time of his passing.

He took a great interest in his beautiful home on Reservoir Hill and in his children and grandchildren and always got the most out of life. Mr. Frazer was always a good friend to everyone and in his passing our community has suffered a deep loss. His family has the sympathy of everyone in their bereave-

Who was his family? Carl was the youngest son of Rupert A and Janie Holmes Frazer. Graduating from Falmouth High School in 1936, he married Jeanne Traber, daughter of Harry G. and Margaret Beare Traber in 1939. Two children were born to this union: Carl Jr. who died in infancy and Maxine Elizabeth. Carl and Jeanne had four grandchildren: David and Darryl, who survive, and Deirdre and Donna Ammerman, who preceded him in infancy. Carl had two brothers: George and Ralph, and one sister Hilda Harast, at whose home he was laying carpet when he met his demise.

Three sources of information extolled Carl Frazer as exemplifying the Rotary motto of “Service above Self.” One said, “Carl was involved in several community projects including the Kincaid State Park development, the Falmouth Fire Department, and the procurement of natural gas to Falmouth and Pendleton County. Although he was unable to attend college, he believed that every child should have that opportunity and toward this end he worked hard to establish the Rotary Scholarship Fund.

Another source said that Carl served as Club Secretary-Treasurer for many years and was song leader also. He headed many Rotary and community causes such as March of Dimes, Heart Fund, and Cancer Research. He was active in the Men’s Bible Class in the Methodist Church. In his youth he assisted his late mother in managing the Riverside Cemetery.

CARL FRAZER

A third source noted: “Mr. Frazer always took pride in helping his family or others at any time.” His unselfish attitude and genial services to others were attributes that endeared him to many.

Finally, Darryl Ammerman concluded that the Tornado of 1968 felled a tree in Riverside Cemetery under whose branches his Grandfather had played as a child. Carl Frazer was buried under the shade of where this tree stood, reminding us of the mortality of every living thing and the immortality of the soul which shall never die!

Three vehicle accident at intersection of U.S. 27 and KY 17

The Pendleton Sheriff’s Department worked a three-vehicle accident at the intersection of U.S. 27 and KY 17 at 10:55 a.m. January 3.

Pendleton EMS treated the minor injuries of those involved.

Carol J. McElfresh, 60, of Falmouth was operating a 2002 Pontiac Montana northbound on U.S. 27. She was stopped waiting to make a left turn on to KY 17.

Brian Shepperd, 23, of Cynthiaana was stopped behind McElfresh. He was operating a 1993 Ford Tempo.

Jennifer R. Gay, 30, of Falmouth was northbound operating a 1995 Toyota Corolla. She hit Shepperd’s vehicle in the rear, pushing his vehicle into the rear of the McElfresh vehicle.

Pendleton Sheriff’s Deputy Jared Brewer worked the accident.

Sunday morning the adult choir sang special music. The youth assisted in the singing as well as performing the activities leading to the birth of Jesus.

We want to give a special thanks to Mary Frances Hardin for the work she does with our youth and Michele Monroe for her patience in teaching us new musical material.

Brother Joe gave a brief message on “Why a Baby in a Manger?” Scripture used was Luke 1:26-38. The fact that Jesus was born to a virgin shows Divinity. Jesus took the form of man and walked and suffered as a man thus offering us an Eternity with no end. We will be able to see and worship with Him face to face. Do you have your spot in eternity reserved? All you have to do is accept Him as your Savior.

Remember our sick, lost, military, and families who have lost loved ones.

Butler Christian

Disciples of Christ

Meeting: CWF and elders, 7 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 12.

Support our youth, save your cans for recycling. Non-perishable items are needed for the food pantry.

Adult Sunday School, 10 a.m.; worship, 11 a.m.; nursery provided.

Camp Northward Connections

As the sun sparkles over the cold wintry snow there is a freshness that heralds the New Year. We often speak of the new beginning that is so evident with the start of a new year. It is an opportunity to evaluate the what, why, and how of our efforts, but also an occasion to check our focus or direction. Often in life we get things out of focus. Like a trip to the eye doctor might reveal you need new glasses, a corrective lens. Perhaps this year it means the dreaded bifocal or trifocal lens. Either way it means a new way to see the world.

How about beginning 2011 with a new world view? A view that sees everyone matters to God and that no one deserves God’s goodness. We are all sinners saved by His grace. In 2011 share the story, share the grace.

Chapel of Praise Assembly of God

Pastor Ronny Hull

Reaching all generations—all around the world—is the goal of the church. The Psalmist said, “I will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.”

It is our responsibility to tell others about the faithfulness of the Lord. Many Christians and churches have limited visions, stretching no further than the proverbial “end of their noses.” They tend to select the group or type of people they want to reach or that will benefit their local church. “Whole world” focuses not only on geography, but humanity. In every nook and cranny of the globe there are people who need Jesus, people who have never heard the “Name that is above all names [Jesus Christ].”

Christ expects believers to be global Christians. He wants His church to be global in its outreach. [Part One]

Falmouth Baptist

Another Christmas has come and gone, and Christ lives on! Our prayer is that we all grow closer to Him in 2011.

The Christmas Eve candlelight service was beautiful. The choir blessed us with several lovely selections and then Bro. Cohen read us the Christmas story from Luke. A time of reflection about the true meaning of Christmas was followed by the holy sacrament of communion.

Our Sunday service began with the choir singing “I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day”. Bro. Cohen’s message came from Isaiah 1:18 and reminded us that Christ beckons us and now is the time to come to Him.

The youth, along with a few “young at heart”, will be in Gatlinburg for the Xtreme Winter Conference—exciting ministry events that appeal to youth and convey the messages of Christ. We know they’ll be blessed!

We happily welcome Peyton Barnes into our Falmouth Baptist Church family.

Falmouth Christian

On Dec. 26, we opened the morning service with the hymn, “O Come, All Ye Faithful.” We were blessed with special music from Hannah Hart playing on the piano with Jeff Vanlandingham. Brother Clay Sullivan delivered the message, “The Day After Christmas” from Luke 2:17-20. At the hymn of decision, one came forward to be baptized, and one came forward for rededication.

FCC had the Christmas Eve Candlelight Services at 7:00 p.m. What a powerful service in celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ.

Names mentioned for prayer list were Ray Hammond, Dorothy Angel, Ralph and Marietta Wilson, Hallie Hart, Natalie Golfman, Chanis Cox, Wanda Gosney, Debbie Neace, Tim Nordeim, Kaelyn Adams, Gary Mann Family, and Floyd Baynum Family.

Come and worship with us this Sunday: 9:30 a.m. Sunday School, 10:45 a.m. worship service, and 6 p.m. evening service. May God bless you and Happy New Year!

Falmouth Wesleyan

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Danny Schlueter! They were married on Monday, Dec. 27, at our church. May God grant them blessings on their marriage.

On Sunday, Dec. 26, Pastor Baker spoke about the followers of Jesus not effectively applying the Word of God. They were disappointed because they thought Jesus was dead but they didn’t understand that it was written many years before that He would rise from the dead. In fact, in Luke 24, Jesus was actually walking with them and they didn’t even know it!

How are you applying the Bible in your life? In this new year, make it a priority to know and apply the Bible better than you ever have in the past!

Happy New Year from Falmouth Wesleyan Church!

First Baptist

“A Lighthouse in the Community”

Harry Crozier, Pastor

Happy New Year! Amanda Bruin lit the last candle of Advent, The Christ Candle. Adarin Williams blessed us with special music.

Bro. Harry’s message, “Twas The Day After Christmas, Now What?” was taken from Luke. We need to keep Jesus in our hearts every day of the year, not just during the Christmas season. Just like the shepherds and the wise men we need to spread the Good News of our Lord, every day. Tell others how Jesus has blessed and helped you through hard times. Our Heavenly Father loves us and is there for us constantly.

As we have done in the past, our Sunday and Wednesday evening services are canceled during the months of January and February, due to the unpredictable weather.

Pray for all in need of hope and healing.

“Heaven—don’t miss it for the world!”

Harvest Community

Bro. Dale Bobb

God’s love is not self-centered. It reaches out and draws others in. He has set the pattern of true love, the basis for all love relationships—when you love someone dearly you are willing to give freely to the point of self sacrifice. God paid dearly with the life of His Son, the highest price He could pay. When we share the gospel with others, our ‘love’ must be like Jesus’—willingly giving of our own comfort and security so that others might join us in receiving God’s love. “God’s Great Gift of Love” John 3:16.

Prayer concerns: Lillian Heiert, Alton Elrod, Amy Davidson, Wanda Gosney, and the family of Mabel Carr.

Join us Sundays at Sharp Middle school; 10 a.m. Bible study and 11 a.m. worship service. Wednesday and Sunday evenings Bible study at 6 p.m. at 101 W. Shelby St. (church office)

Morgan Christian

Pastor David Wu

On Jan. 29, we plan on taking a group to Perfect North to ski and snowboard. We need at least 15 for the group rate, so come out to Morgan and sign up for the trip. Also, in Feb. and March we plan on roller skating and bowling.

Thanks to the Harvilles for the new track lighting in the sanctuary.

New videos of our recent Christmas celebrations are at <http://morganc.cc.blogspot.com>. On Jan. 16 we plan on having a laity Sunday. Duke Wilmes and Steve Wood will be preaching, Faye Godman will be doing the prayer, Kathie Moreland will lead the children’s moment, Estille Vaughn will preside at the table and Jimmie Godman will do the benediction.

Our beloved Mabel Carr recently went home to be with the Lord after celebrating her 101st Christmas. We will sorely miss Mabel’s kindness, compassion, sense of humor and spirit.

Mt. Moriah Christian

Some may have experienced the “Christmas blues” this past week! Try thinking about the Christ of Christmas! He is our Prophet, Priest, King, Master, Bridegroom, Good Shepherd, Holy One of God, Emmanuel-God with Us. His name was called Jesus. In John 1:29 He was the Lamb of God “Who takes away the sin of the world.” The wise men recognized Him as the “King of the Jews” in Matthew 2:2. Even the demons in Mark 1:24 called Him “The Holy One of God”. Seek His presence and His peace.

Happy New Year of 2011 to each and everyone of you! You are always welcome at Mt. Moriah! God bless.

New Hope Church of Christ

If you wished for a white Christmas, then you got one. This December we saw a lot of snow. The snow is a great illustration of our lives. You see, when snow falls it looks so beautiful and white. It decorates barren trees and paints the brown grass white. Have you ever noticed the snow next to the road? It is ugly, black, or gray. Why? Because it has been corrupted by salt, mud, tires, and more. It is no longer useful to play with, look at, or use for any purpose. It is corrupted. Nothing can bring it back to its original color.

That is what happens in our lives due to sin. We were created perfect until we corrupt ourselves with sin. Just like the snow, we lose our beauty. Unlike the snow, we can be made pure and white again through the blood of Christ.

Roanoke Christian

Bro. Don Weaver

Bro. Don’s message Sunday was a Christmas theme with a different point of view, titled “The Miracle of It All”. The background scripture was Philippians 2:2.

Life for us is a series of progressions and achievements, from the time we are born to the time we are an adult. But what happened in Bethlehem that night 2000 years ago was a reversal of the typical line of progression. God could have sent His Son to earth at any stage of life or even as an angel, but instead He sent Him as a baby to progress through the trials of life as a common man. This is the true miracle of Christmas.

Please remember those who are in a critical time of need in your prayers. You are welcome to join us each Sunday for worship services at 11 a.m., and Sunday School at 10 a.m.

Southside Church of Christ

The practice of making New Year’s resolutions goes back over 3000 years. There is something about the start of a new year that gives us the feeling of a fresh start and a new beginning. The Bible does not speak for or against the concept of New Year’s resolutions. Philippians 4:13 tells us, “I can do everything through Him who gives me strength.”

If a Christian decides to make a New Year’s resolution, what kind of resolution should he or she make? 1.) Pray for wisdom as to how to fulfill the goals God gives you. 2.) Rely on God’s strength to help you. 3.) Don’t become discouraged with occasional failures; instead allow them to motivate you further. 4.) Give God the glory. Psalm 37:5-6, “Commit your way to the LORD; trust in Him and He will do this: He will make your righteousness shine...”

Sunday School, 9 a.m.; worship service 10 a.m.

Trinity Southern Baptist

Blessings from Trinity. After welcoming our congregation and visitors who were with us Sunday, we began services with by singing “I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day”. Special music by Christina Keeton singing “Christmas Has It’s Cradle”. Thank you, Christina, for a beautiful message in song. The sermon text was taken from Galatians 4:4-6 and Romans 8:15 as the pastor spoke to us on “God’s Perfect Timing”.

Punishment and death are two of our biggest fears we are all going to have to face, but God made provisions of overcoming that fear through the birth, suffering, death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. He paid that price for us.

Had a great attendance for the Christmas Eve Services and we wish to thank each of you for coming and all those who took part. It was a great worship experience. See you Sunday!

Turner Ridge Baptist

On Sunday, our morning service was led by T.J. Cabler. Dale Beighle gave the children’s message about the grinch who stole Christmas, which was not true, but the real truth is knowing Jesus and that is the real joy of Christmas.

Choir special was “O Holy Night” with Diane Carter singing and a group of our members playing handbells for her.

Upcoming events: River Valley Service Jan. 16 at 2:30 p.m. and Baptist Men’s Day Jan. 23.

Shut-in this week: Ed Beighle, 8579 Hwy 467, Williamstown, KY 41097.

Christian sympathy is extended to the families of Gary Mann, Frank Adkins, John Gravett Sr., Sue Hensley, Ron Spaulding, and Mabel Carr.

New friends were added this week. Please remember prayers and concerns for everyone.

No church home? Come join us.

TO ALL OF OUR DEAR CUSTOMERS, GO OUR SINCERE THANKS FOR VISITING THIS YEAR. WE WISH YOU AND YOURS HAPPY NEW YEAR, AND WE LOOK FORWARD TO SERVING YOU IN 2011!

Reducing soil compaction

The most common causes of soil compaction are traffic and tillage on soil that is too wet. Compaction reduces water and nutrient uptake leading to poor root growth and ultimately lower yields in the affected areas.

A survey showed that about one-third of the fields in central and western Kentucky were sufficiently compacted to reduce the yields of less tolerant crops such as corn and tobacco.

Prevention is the best way to manage soil compaction. The most severe problem occurs when soil is a little too wet to work. When a soil ball does not easily crumble apart in your hand, conditions are too wet for you to work in the field.

Unfortunately, we do not always have the luxury of waiting for soil to dry. In these situations, you can do little things like reducing tire pressure and restricting heavy equipment to the edges of fields. Also, no-till cropping systems dramatically reduce soil compaction, because of increased soil microbial and earthworm activity, improved pore distribution and reduced traffic.

A common symptom of soil compaction is that a field is not as productive as it used to be, or isn't as productive as surrounding fields. Other indications are unexpected or unexplained nutrient deficiencies, or more severe drought stress. You also can detect compaction by digging roots of a growing plant, because they will begin to grow

Ways to talk so your kids will listen

This week, we look at tips 7-11.

- Keep away from nagging. At the end of each school day, I wanted the children in my class to tidy the room before home time. I felt that they should learn to tidy up after themselves and take pride in their room. I created a job chart. Each job had a child's name next to it and I would rotate the jobs weekly to avoid monotony. I explained that five minutes before home time each day it would be "job time". Just before the bell, I would walk around the room and pick which job or jobs were completed to perfection. That child or children would receive a bonus or prize. My room was immaculate each day and I hardly had to say a thing!
- This can work well at home too. Either writing things down, or having a chart with incentives in place, eliminate lots of nagging. It is important to make sure you recognize and praise effort, and reward desired behavior.
- Try to set a time where kids know what is expected. They thrive on routines. For example, set a time to do their chores in the afternoons. When they are playing they don't like to be interrupted, just as much as we don't when reading a good book. If they know what is expected and when you shouldn't have to nag as much.
- Model and expect good manners. Good manners at home or anywhere shouldn't be optional. If you model good manners to your children and everyone else, they will see that good manners is expected and displayed on a consistent level.

Children deserve the common courtesy of manners that adults use with each other. They will often imitate the speech and

Monetary gifts teach saving habits

Holiday money gifts give parents an opportunity to begin teaching pre-school children saving habits that will last a lifetime.

One easy way to begin is to remember the two S's, save and spend. Consider putting a jar marked "save" and another labeled "spend" in the children's room. Then divide the holiday money into portions to save and spend, perhaps a 50-50 split.

When they have accumulated enough to open an interest-bearing savings account, take them to a bank or credit union to create it.

Routinely saving money gives pre-schooler's funds for future wants and needs and introduces them to the benefits of saving. Encouraging children to consistently save from birth through their teenage years helps them develop a habit that will continue on into adulthood.

Remember to set a good example by regularly saving some of your holiday money gifts as well as your salary.

CARD OF THANKS

ANNIVERSARY THANKS
To our friends who attended our
"open house" on Saturday,
December 18, 2010—Thanks.

Thanks so much for making our 60th wedding anniversary so wonderful.

Special thanks to our daughter,
Donna, and daughter-in-law,
JoAnn, for taking care of the important items—cakes and food. Great job, girls, we do appreciate all your efforts.

As we look over the last 60 years, it is unbelievable all the great things we have enjoyed.

We will always cherish all who came despite the snow, cold, and difficult parking. There were those who remember our hunting trip for grouse, my Bible study group—great group, and friends from other churches: Butler, Ft. Thomas, Antioch, and Mt. Moriah. Also many thanks for those beautiful flowers, cards, and phone calls.

Yes, we are thankful to God for allowing us to enjoy this day with friends.

Sincerely,
Bob Jones

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY RESEARCH

Pendleton County 4th, 5th and 6th Grade Parents Needed for Research Study

Substance abuse is a worsening problem for youth in rural populations. Research demonstrates substance abuse prevention programs that involve parents may be the most effective.

Researchers at the University of Kentucky College of Nursing are conducting a research study on the acceptance of a web-based parenting skills program for a target population of 4th, 5th and 6th grade parents in rural Pendleton County.

Voluntary participation is limited to parents with children enrolled in 4th, 5th and 6th grade of the Pendleton County school system for the 2010-2011 academic year.

RALPH AND SHIRLEY PETTIT

Pettits to celebrate 60th anniversary

At the home of Rev. D.P. DeHart in Butler, a lovely wedding ceremony took place on January 6, 1951. Miss Shirley Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Turner of Butler, and Ralph Pettit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pettit, also of Butler, exchanged their vows. After the ceremony the wedding party, family, and friends enjoyed a lovely dinner served at the bride's home.

Friends and family would like to express the warmest of wishes on your 60th wedding anniversary. We love you Mom and Dad!

Two Amish recipes to share

The Amish Cook

By Lovina Eicher

Editor's Note: Lovina is spending the week with her children who are on their holiday break. Her column will return in its regular format next week. New Year's Day is a celebratory occasion among the Amish. I have heard stories for years of how Lovina's Grandpa Graber ushered in the New Year by blowing in a conch shell, sending out a loud "horn" type sound across the rural fields. New Year's Eve features snacks and eager waiting by children for the midnight hour. Following are two recipes from "An Amish Christmas", one is a great New Year's Eve snack and the other is a delicious recipe for sauerkraut, a traditional New Year's dish in many homes.

Kevin Williams, Amish Cook Editor

CARAMEL CORN

- 9 quarts popped corn
- 2 cups brown sugar
- 1/2 cup white corn syrup
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 sticks margarine
- 1/2 teaspoon soda

SAUERKRAUT BALLS

1 teaspoon vanilla
Boil the sugar, syrup, margarine and salt for 5 minutes. Take from stove and add soda and vanilla. Pour over popcorn and mix well. Pour into pans. Bake at 250 for 1 hour. Stir several times during baking.

- 2 pounds ground pork
- 2 pounds ground beef
- 1 medium minced onion
- 1 16 oz can undrained sauerkraut
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire
- 1 teaspoon soy sauce
- 2 tablespoons horseradish
- 2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 teaspoon Tabasco sauce
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 tablespoon Parmesan cheese
- 2 teaspoon garlic salt
- 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 1 cup saltine cracker crumbs

Combine all ingredients for meat mixture in large bowl and mix well. Roll into 1-inch balls.

Breading:
3 eggs
3 cups milk
1 cup (+/-) dry bread crumbs
1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
Oil for deep frying

Combine bread crumbs and poultry seasoning. Dip sauerkraut balls into egg mixture, then roll lightly in bread crumbs. Deep-fry in hot oil (370° F) for 4 to 5 minutes or until cooked completely through. Makes 60 to 70 sauerkraut balls.

"I Didn't Know That"—Auld Lang Syne explained

"I Didn't Know That"
by Karlen Evins

(Why We Say The Things We Say)

Funny to think of tunes we grew up on, whose words are mistranslated by small children. I myself recall singing "Bringing in the Sheaves" as "Bringing in the Cheese."

(I smile as I type, recalling that hilarious scene from Monte Python's "History of the World" where someone in the crowd interprets Jesus's beatitude as "Blessed are the Cheesemakers!")

A youth leader friend of mine tells of a five-year-old belting out "Lead on Oh King, Eternal" as "Lead on Oh Kinky Turtle!"

And then there's the classic mishap in "I Come to the Garden Alone" (with chorus proclaiming "And He walks with me, and He talks with me"), wherein another small child reportedly raised his hand and asked, "Who is Andy?"

Cute as these stories are, I dare say we've all been guilty of substituting something for something else when we weren't quite sure of the words.

Case in point: Auld Lang Syne (which no, is not Old AnXie (as in anxiety). Translated, it means "Days gone by". The tune traces to a number of folk sources, but the lyrics are credited to Scottish poet laureate Robert Burns (1788). Now synonymous with mug swinging, champagne toasting revelers everywhere, the singing of this one calls for pausing in the midst of chaotic partying to reflect on the year that was.

Other New Year's traditions are steeped in history as well. For instance if you think New Year's Eve resembles Mardi Gras, well, you're right. Originally, the season was a pagan celebration of the winter solstice, ending a full cycle of harvest rituals, and symbolizing order out of chaos.

Ironically, the primitive New Year (i.e. winter solstice) celebration was a week long wine-inbibbing frenzy of a party, culminated in one somber day of purification. Our version today involves a week-long shopping frenzy, culminating with a New Year's Eve party, followed by day of resolutions.

Amazing, huh?

As with words, so with traditions. They all began somewhere.

Here's raising a glass to the year that was, and wishing you nothing but health and happiness in the year ahead.

Snow Plan for Pendleton County Schools, 2010-2011

A ‘Snow Plan’ has been designed to allow Pendleton County school buses to operate on pre-determined roads when many of our bus turn-arounds are snow- or ice-covered. In the past, these turn-around conditions caused our schools to be closed.

When the Snow Plan is announced, the buses will operate mainly on primary roads and some pre-determined secondary roads. When certain roads are excluded from a normal bus route, “Stop” times will be adjusted in many cases.

Below is a list of roads which will be traveled and a list of roads which will not be traveled when the Snow Plan is in effect.

Wildcats endure tough luck during holiday tournaments

By Jackie Vaughn, Reporter

The Pendleton County Wildcats varsity basketball team, coming off a victory against Nicholas County, recently returned to action for a pair of tournaments held during the last two weeks of December. First, they traveled to London to participate in the Hoopin’ It Up Tourney, December 18-21, and then it was off to the Ohio County Tourney, December 27-29. In total, the Wildcats played in eight games, losing seven while winning only one. Their overall team record now stands at three wins and 10 losses.

In their first round match-up at the Hoopin’ It Up Tourney, the Wildcats faced off against North Laurel on Saturday, December 18. In a well-played contest, they were defeated by a score of 71-77 in double overtime. Not only did the Wildcats seem to be competing against North Laurel but also against the referees. North Laurel shot 44 free throws compared to the Wildcats’ five. That, obviously, could have easily been the difference in the outcome.

“We played well and battled them throughout the game,” said Wildcats Head Coach Chad Simms. “We could have won and had some last-second chances to do just that but didn’t get it done. It was a good game but some of our inexperience showed with turnovers. Also, you hate to see the refs put the other team on the free throw line as much as they did. I mean 44 attempts to five?”

The leading scorers for the Wildcats were Mason Monroe with 19 points, Bryan Wood, with 16 points, and Michael Walsh with 14 points.

Next came the challenge of South Laurel on Sunday, December 19. The Wildcats picked up their first win against them earlier this season but this time the outcome would prove different as South Laurel won 44-58.

“This was probably our worst game of the season so far,” said Simms. “South Laurel was ready and just outplayed us. They made some adjustments from our first meeting and the guys just didn’t seem up to the challenge. We had trouble scoring at times and inexperience was a major factor.”

Coach Simms did note that while resting his starters the younger players stepped in and played well, cutting into South Laurel’s lead at one point.

The Wildcats were led in scoring by Bryan Wood with 17 points.

The boys from Pendleton County met some stiff competition on Monday, December 20, when they squared off against the Holmes Bulldogs. In the cat-and-dog battle, Holmes built up a 20-point lead by half-time—a margin they managed to hold onto throughout the game. The final score was 34-54 in favor of Holmes.

“We played better towards the end of the game and actually outscored them in the final few minutes,” said Simms. “We just couldn’t get any shots, turnovers were once again a problem, we had trouble passing and we have to learn to play better when being pressed. These are things we’re working on and will improve.”

Mason Monroe led the team with 12 points.

The Wildcats met Lee County in the final game of the Hoopin’ It Up Tourney on Tuesday, December 21. The two teams kept pace with each other during the game but the Wildcats were denied a victory when Lee County hit a last-second shot to win the game by the score of 55 to 54.

“You hate to lose a game on a last-second shot but that’s what happened,” said Simms. “We had a chance to win but failed to hit four free throws close to the end of the game. That would have been the difference. We also had trouble rebounding the ball and that also cost us. Right now, it’s just a lack of experience. We’ll get there.”

The Wildcats were led in scoring by Mason Monroe with 16 points.

“It was an up-and-down tournament for us,” said Simms. “We made several mistakes during the four games but the experience will come in time. So far this season, we’ve lost five games by less than 10 points and had we have hit our free throws we could have won some of them. The boys are playing hard and learning from their mistakes. This team will start winning some games before the season is up.”

Next on the schedule for the Wildcats was the Ohio County Tournament. They played Breckinridge County on Monday, December 27. The Wildcats played extremely well and kept their opponents close. The game went into overtime where the Wildcats were finally defeated by a score of 54-55.

“The boys played good again but free throws continue to haunt us,” said Simms. “We have got to start hitting them if we want to come out on top. I was proud of their performance but disappointed by the outcome.”

Michael Walsh, with 18 points, and Alex Valentine, with 10 points, led the Wildcats in scoring.

Grayson County was the next team to challenge the Wildcats on Tuesday, December 28. Unfortunately, they also sent the boys home with another loss. With three seconds remaining, they downed the Wildcats by two points, 49-51. Free throws once again played a part in the defeat down the stretch.

Mason Monroe, with 16 points, and Jared Rering, with 11 points, led the Wildcats in scoring.

In their second game of the day, the Wildcats took on the Louisville Iroquois. Louisville took control and handed the Wildcats their seventh loss in a row. The final score was 42-66. At one point Louisville scored five points in five seconds and then repeated the feat.

Leading the Wildcats in scoring was Mason Monroe with 13 points.

In the final game of the tournament, the Wildcats faced the Australian Travelers on Wednesday, December 29. Enough was enough for the Wildcats as they came out on top by the score of 69-55 to snap the losing streak.

Three Wildcat players, Mason Monroe with 15 points, Michael Walsh with 16 points, and Aaron Bonar with 16 points, all scored in double digits to lead the Wildcats to victory.

“They played much better today,” said Simms. “They played really well. The defense was solid, they didn’t turn the ball over as much and they hit their free throws. It was nice to end the tournaments with a win. “We’ll get back in the gym, work on our weak points and be ready for our next game. As the experience comes, the better we’re going to get.”

This week, the Wildcats travel to Bracken County to take on the Polar Bears on Tuesday, January 4, and then it’s back home Friday to face the Montgomery Indians.

Be sure to come out and cheer the Wildcats on!
